Board Purpose

The Huntsman School of Business Differential Tuition Advisory Board advises the dean of the school on the use of funds generated by differential tuition.

Board Composition

The board is composed of up to fifteen members, as follows:

- Up to five declared Huntsman School undergraduate students (including the USUSA Business Senator)
- Up to three Huntsman School graduate students
- One faculty member from each Huntsman School academic department
- Up to two Huntsman School staff members
- One Huntsman School administrator

Student members shall be selected through recommendations from the USUSA Business Senator; faculty members shall be selected by department heads; and the staff shall be selected by the dean’s office. Membership will be reconstituted each year. The board will report to the dean of the school.

The board will be chaired by the associate dean of the school responsible for student affairs, and he or she will serve as a voting member. The chair will convene the board at least once per year with additional meetings to be called as needed to carry out the responsibilities of the board.

Board Responsibilities

Board responsibilities are two-fold:

- Annually review the use of funding provided by differential tuition.
- Provide annual recommendations to the dean regarding the use of differential tuition.

The board will communicate the uses of funding to all students, faculty, and staff.

The dean of the school will make final decisions about expenditures and the timing of those expenditures. The board’s role will remain advisory.

Charter Amendments

Changes to the charter may be proposed by any board member per approval by a two-thirds majority of the voting members of the board. Any changes to the charter must be approved by the dean of the Jon M. Huntsman School of Business.
