Jon M. Huntsman School of Business
Differential Tuition Advisory Board

Board Purpose

The Huntsman School of Business Differential Tuition Advisory Board advises the dean of the school on the use of funds generated by differential tuition.

Board Composition

The board is composed of up to eleven members, as follows:

- Two to three declared Huntsman School undergraduate students (including the USUSA Business Senator)
- One to two Huntsman School graduate students
- Two to three Huntsman School faculty members
- One to two Huntsman School staff members
- One Huntsman School administrator

Members shall be selected through recommendations from the USUSA Business Senator, department heads, and the dean’s office. Membership will be reconstituted each year. The board will report to the dean of the school.

The board will be chaired by the associate dean of the school responsible for student affairs, and he or she will serve as a voting member. The chair will convene the board at least once per year with additional meetings to be called as needed to carry out the responsibilities of the board.

Board Responsibilities

The board will review the use of funding provided through differential tuition and make recommendations to the dean regarding the use of funding. The board will make every effort to communicate the uses of funding to as broad a range of students, faculty, and staff as possible.

The dean of the school will make final decisions about expenditures and the timing of those expenditures. The board’s role will remain advisory.

Charter Amendments

This charter may be amended by the board. Amendments or alterations may be proposed by any board member and must be approved by a two-thirds majority of the voting members of the board and the dean.
