Elective Coursework Focus:

"Marketing is the activity, set of institutions, and processes for creating, communicating, delivering, and exchanging offerings that have value for customers, clients, partners, and society at large" (American Marketing Association).

There are many different careers in marketing, such as advertising, creative design, consulting, data analytics, digital marketing, marketing communications, marketing research, marketing strategy, marketing technology, promotional products, sales, etc. While students can take any combination of the marketing elective courses to meet graduation requirements, certain elective combinations can help students prepare for specific career paths. Please see your academic advisor for a list of elective course combinations you can take to best prepare you for your desired career in Marketing.
