

PAUL RAY CAMPBELL, CPA

2012 South 800 West, Nibley, Utah 84321 | (o) 435-752-1510 (c) 435-881-5331 | pcampbell@jones-simkins.com

EDUCATION

University of Denver

Masters of Taxation 2000

Utah State University

Bachelor of Arts in Accounting, Magna Cum Laude 1998
Minor: Spanish

TEACHING EXPERIENCE

Utah State University

Adjunct Instructor – “Taxation of Flow Through Entities” 2013 - Present

Adjunct Instructor – “Federal Income Taxation of Corporations and Shareholders” 2014 - Present

Developed syllabus and overall course structure, including curriculum, and administered all grades

Utah State University Income Tax School – CPE Seminar

Instructor 2011 - Present

Present various topics from the annual National Income Tax Workbook to Certified Public Accountants whom receive CPE credit for their participation in the seminars.

RELATED EXPERIENCE

Jones Simkins, LLC

Tax Partner 2006 – Present

Promote and manage firm practice including consulting and compliance work for a multitude of clients across many industries. Specialize in areas of flow through and corporate taxation along with ASC 740 reporting.

Wasatch Property Management

Chief Financial Officer 2003 – 2006

Oversight of financial operations of the company including reporting to shareholders and managing banking relationships. Oversight and training of internal tax department where all flow through entity tax returns were prepared.

Arthur Anderson LLP / KPMG LLP

Staff Associate / Senior Associate 2000 - 2003

Consulting and compliance for tax clients. Specialized in flow through entity reporting.

PUBLICATIONS AND PAPERS

“Tax Season was a nightmare, what can I do not to make sure next year isn’t so bad?”

Published in the April 19 edition of Progressive Dairyman 2017

“Entity Selection and Formation, Navigating and Understanding the Possibilities”

Published in the June edition of Progressive Dairyman 2011

MEMBERSHIPS

American Institute of Certified Public Accountants

Utah Association of Certified Public Accountants