Tara Williams, ’11 received the UACPA award for Women to Watch: Emerging Leader at the UACPA’s Annual Inauguration & Awards Banquet this fall. This award is presented to a woman professional who has made significant contributions to the profession and her community, but who has not yet reached the highest levels of advancement.

Tara Williams, CPA is a manager at Cook Martin Poulson’s Logan office and has been with the firm for 10 years. She specializes in compilations, reviews, and audits of financial statements. She also prepares tax returns for individuals and businesses. She serves clients in a variety of industries including agriculture, banking, construction, manufacturing, trucking and transportation, not-for-profit organizations, employee benefit plans, and captive insurance. Tara enjoys serving the community through her service on the Women in Business-Cache Valley and Cache Chamber of Commerce boards of directors. Tara enjoys spending time outdoors with her family, hiking and practicing archery.

Congratulations Tara!
