Watch Some of the Excellent Presentations from the 36th Annual Accounting Conference - November 2012

The 36th Annual Accounting Conference was an outstanding success thanks to a blockbuster lineup of presenters that included:

Denny Beran, Chairman of the Board, Institute of Internal Auditors, and senior VP of audit, JC Penney Corporation, who spoke about “Enhancing the Value of Internal Auditing.” http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=1cC3NsxddZg

Lynn Turner, former Chief Accountant at the SEC, presented on “An Investors Perspective on the Role of Auditors in the Future—Will Audits be Needed in 20 Years?” http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=OzvsgRwqIFk

James Leisenring, former member of the FASB and the IASB, and currently serving as senior advisor to the FASB, provided information on “Conceptual Framework Issues.” http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=1vONQ6yFWfA

Weston Smith, former CFO of Health South, spoke about his direct involvement in one of the largest frauds ever. His topic was “Crossing the Line: An Insider’s Story of HealthSouth Fraud.”

Jason Collins, managing partner of Reid Collins & Tsai LLP, offered advice on “Accounting Liability—Current Issues and Trends.” http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=weyh1slhtww

Paula Eldredge, audit manager, Zions Bankcorporation and president, Salt Lake Chapter of the Institute of Internal Auditors, taught attendees how to be a team player within an organization in “Using the Same Playbook.” http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=OKVe-T-X5NM

Anthony Berrett, partner, KPMG LLP provided the “Accounting & Financial Reporting Update.”

Garrett Koerner, tax senior manager, Ernst & Young, presented “The Fiscal Cliff: Critical Tax Policy Decision Ahead.”