WELCOME

Dear Students,

Welcome to the Huntsman Scholar Program, to the Huntsman School of Business, where we dare mighty things, and to the Aggie Nation!

Jon Huntsman envisioned the Huntsman Scholar Program as an Ivy-League education at a public school cost, right here in Logan, Utah. He also wanted to create a program that looked for and promoted grit, entrepreneurial spirit, ethical leadership, or as he put it, "where you word is your bond," and a focus on creating value. You will find just that, and much more, in the classes and activities offered through Huntsman Scholars.

You are an important part of this vision. Much is expected of you. I am confident that each of you will be able to grow and transform your lives through your commitment to the Program, the resources and opportunities offered to you by the investment from the Huntsman Foundation, and the support of faculty, staff, alumni, and your fellow students.

It is my sincere hope that each of you will fully commit to your future. Be proactive. Take advantage of the opportunities in front of you. Create your own opportunities. Read widely, think critically, seek diverse opinions, build lasting relationships, take action. And always tell the truth.

GO AGGIES!

Dave Patel
Executive Director, Huntsman Scholar Program
Associate Dean, Huntsman School of Business
PURPOSE

The purpose of the Huntsman Scholar Program is to prepare students to lead lives of meaning and contribution.

“It is my sincere hope that these students will mature into true leaders and entrepreneurs of tomorrow.”

– Jon M. Huntsman

CORE VALUES

The Huntsman Scholar Program is guided by five core values that define our culture and aspirations.

1. Integrity – Act with courage, speak the truth, practice transparency, and take ownership to ensure harmony with our purpose.
2. Humility – Understand that awareness of the landscape of reality is the highest form of wisdom.
3. Respect – Assume others have good intentions, treat everyone with dignity and sensitivity, and seek first to understand.
4. Principled Entrepreneurship – Develop and practice a philosophy of mutual benefit.
5. Self-Actualization – Be a lifelong learner, practice continuous improvement, and create value.

“It’s critical that our students understand the power and capacity they have within themselves to be creative, to be innovative, and to become great leaders of tomorrow.”

– Jon M. Huntsman

PROGRAM EXPECTATIONS AND CONTRACT

2017/2018/2019

• Enrolled as a full-time student (12-credits or more), excluding summer terms, with primary major in the Huntsman School
• Maintain a 3.5 GPA
• Complete the ten program courses found at www.huntsman.usu.edu/scholars/curriculum over the course of your time at USU as a Scholar.
• Complete the four faculty-run labs found at www.huntsman.usu.edu/scholars/curriculum over the course of your time at USU as a Scholar.
• Complete one internship, or substantive (six-weeks or more, 120 hours or more), career-related work, prior to your last year in the program.
• Show stellar engagement and progress, as demonstrated through performance evaluations in program offerings such as professional development series, courses, leadership and service activities, and any other program-specific curriculum implemented for the benefit of your success.
• Attend required program meetings (will be announced early enough to plan your schedule around) and engage with your peers and faculty mentor(s) in a meaningful way.

Satisfactory progress in meeting these requirements will ensure continuation in the program and the awarding of the program stipend of $1,000 each term (excluding summer terms) for up to eight terms.

*Each new Huntsman Scholar agrees to this contract online upon accepting admission to the program.

The Huntsman Scholar Program has two types of probations:

Academic Probation – A student who gets below a 3.5 GPA in one term will be on academic probation the following term. The student will still receive their stipend when on probation. If they get below a 3.5 GPA again, the student is removed from the Program.

Involvement Probation – A student who misses required Program and mentor meetings too often and/or is not involved with other extra-curricular activities will be on involvement probation the following term. The student will still receive their stipend when on probation. If the behavior continues, the student is removed from the Program.
